
A Career in IT

A Career in IT

IT jobs titles

Popular jobs in Computer Networking

Network Administrator

Network (Systems) Engineer

Network (Service) Technician

Network Programmer/Analyst

Network/Information Systems Manager

Popular jobs in Programming

Software application developer

Web developer

Database administrator

Computer systems analyst

Computer programmer

A Career in IT

IT jobs and duties

- Listen to six people introducing themselves. What jobs do they do?

5. database administrator
2. helpdesk supervisor
3. project manager
1. software developer
4. support technician
6. systems analyst

A Career in IT

Qualifications & Experience

Qualifications are official records showing that you have finished a training course or have the necessary skills for a job/position.

course | showing | that | records | you | have finished | official | a | training

Experience refers to the opportunities you have had to acquire and develop skills.

It provides a context for and adds to the qualifications.

have had | the opportunities | you | to acquire | skills | and | develop

A Career in IT

Higher Education Qualifications

UK

- Diplomas

- Two year diploma courses, i.e. Higher National Diploma or Diploma of Higher Education

- Bachelor degrees

- Three year degrees (leading to Bachelor of Science/Engineering or Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Education).

- Foundation degrees

- 'Year 0' programs (do not hold the pertinent entry qualifications)

- Post-graduate degrees

- Doctoral degrees

A Career in IT

Higher Education Qualifications

US (credentials)

- Associate Degree
- Bachelor's Degree
- First Professional Degree
- Post-bachelor's Diploma/Certificate
- Master's Degree/ Certificate of Advanced Study
- Doctorate

(other credentials)

- High School Diploma
- Certificate (Sub-bachelor or vocational)
- Diploma (Sub-bachelor or vocational)

A Career in IT

Higher Education Qualifications

US (credentials)

- Associate Degree
- Bachelor's Degree
- First Professional Degree
- Post-bachelor's Diploma/Certificate
- Master's Degree/ Certificate of Advanced Study
- Doctorate

(other credentials)

- High School Diploma
- Certificate (Sub-bachelor or vocational)
- Diploma (Sub-bachelor or vocational)

A Career in IT

to study for
to take

to have to hold

to be awarded to get to receive

• a diploma (in) to study for

to have to do

to take

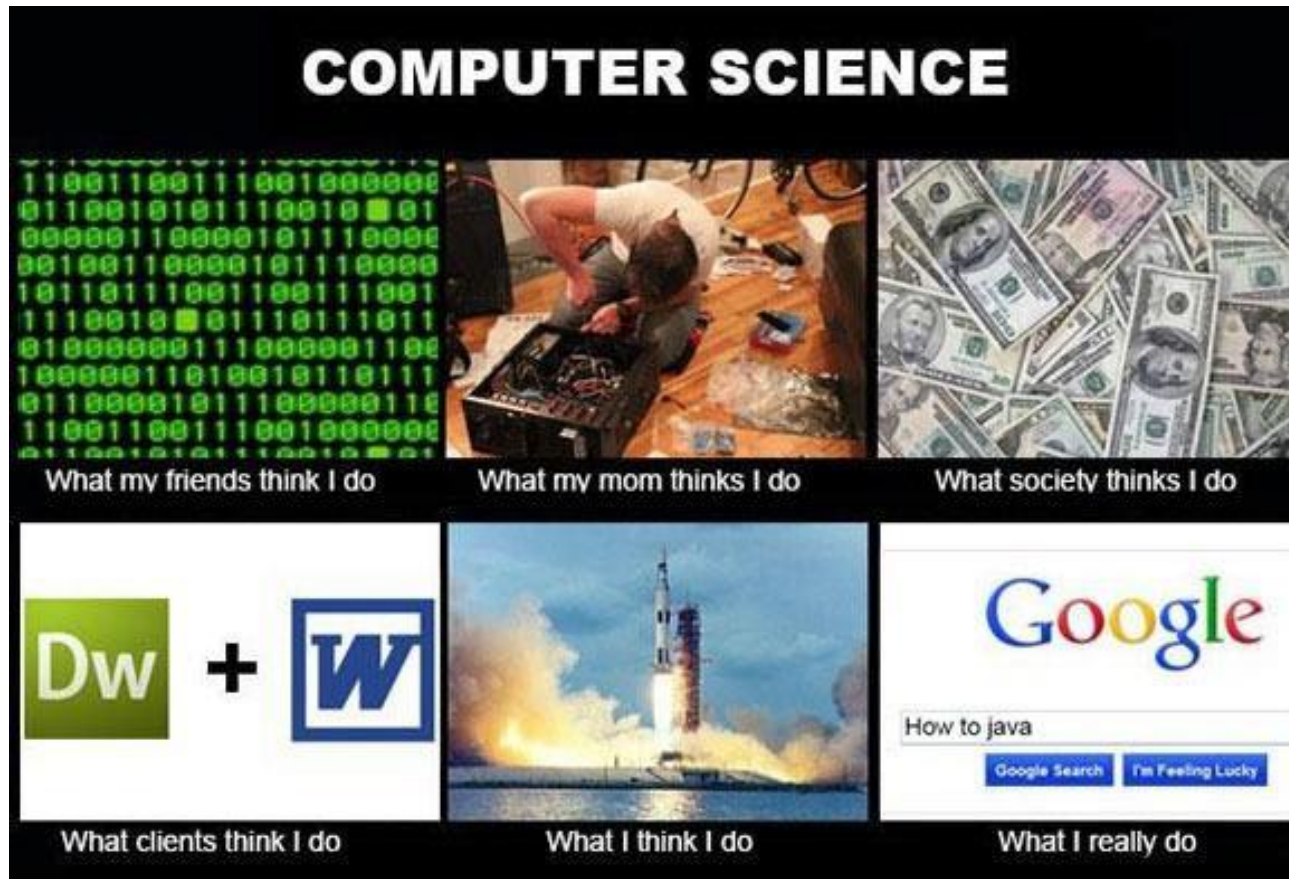

to be awarded

to get to gain

to receive to obtain

• a degree (in)

A Career in IT

A Career in IT

Skills vs Qualities

- Skill
 - What you know how to do
 - Something you learn
- Quality
 - Personal characteristic or feature (something you are born with)

A Career in IT

Watch the video What is scrum?

a) What is a backlog?

A prioritised wish list.

b) What is a sprint?

A set timeframe to complete the work.

c) Identify the 4 phases of scrum sprint planning; sprint; sprint review; retrospective

A Career in IT

Employability Skills

Qualities and attitudes that employers say are essential for their workplace:

- positive attitude
- communication
- teamwork
- self-management
- willingness to learn
- critical thinking skills
- resilience

A Career in IT

Employability Skills

Technical/specialist skills	Transferable skills	Soft skills
usually relate to a specific job or group of jobs	can be transferred from one job to another	what makes you a great employee (personal skills)
• fluency in a language • a heavy vehicle driver's licence • ability to use specific computer programs and technical equipment (Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop, etc.)	• able to motivate and organise others • able to work with facts and figures • good verbal and communication skills • accuracy and/or an eye for detail	• strong work ethics • communication • creative thinking • time management • leadership

A Career in IT

Describing Skills

Conscientious

At school I was in charge of collecting money for charitable institutions.

Self-starter

I have taken part in different open source projects and developed web applications (links).

Willingness to learn

I have studied an online course on Excel and Word to update my skills.

A Career in IT

Strengths and Weaknesses

Draw a mind map listing your strengths and weaknesses and describe them to the class. Try to use the following phrases:

Strengths	Weaknesses	Positive/Negative characteristics
I'm excellent at... I'm able to... I'm interested in ... I recently managed to...	I'm not very good at... I could be better at... I'm reasonably good at... I would like to be able to...	I am... I try to... I can sometime be... Occasionally I am... I can be a little bit...

A Career in IT

Mind your language!

A Career in IT

- emploiers – employers
- profilie – profile
- misspellings – missspellings
- sea – see

 mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos

A Career in IT

- ambitious – enterprising, determined
- self-confident – self-assured, self-reliant
- insightful – astute, sharp
- empathetic – sympathetic, understanding mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos
2. Avoid repeating adjectives

A Career in IT

- skilled web developer
- proactive software engineer

[positive adjective + field of study/ profession]

 mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos
2. Avoid repeating adjectives
3. Provide an inviting and professional headline

A Career in IT

- I used to figure out important business cases so our company could create new products.
- I was responsible for developing meaningful business cases to support our company's launch of new products.

Mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos
2. Avoid repeating adjectives
3. Provide an inviting and professional headline
4. Use strong verbs to state your skills

A Career in IT

- | | | | |
|------------|----|----|---------------------|
| 1. e.g. | d) | a) | that is (to say) |
| 2. i.e. | a) | b) | approximately |
| 3. esp. | e) | c) | as soon as possible |
| 4. approx. | b) | d) | for instance |
| 5. no | f) | e) | especially |
| 6. asap | c) | f) | number |

Mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos
2. Avoid repeating adjectives
3. Provide an inviting and professional headline
4. Use strong verbs to state your skills
5. Avoid contractions

A Career in IT

- | | |
|--------------|-------------|
| 1. currently | 5. tell |
| 2. want | 6. position |
| 3. about | 7. chance |
| 4. ensure | |

Mind your language!

1. Watch out for spelling mistakes & typos
2. Avoid repeating adjectives
3. Provide an inviting and professional headline
4. Use strong verbs to state your skills
5. Avoid contractions
6. Use formal language and business wording

Applying for a job

Professional pitching

A Career in IT

An elevator pitch

A quick synopsis of your background and experience.

↓ you should be able to present it during a brief elevator ride (30-60 seconds)

↙

- LinkedIn Profile
- Job interview: Tell me about yourself.

A Career in IT

An elevator pitch

Identification + qualifications + what you can offer a potential employer

Hello, my name is [NAME]. I will be graduating (have recently graduated) in [AREA]. From the [HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION]. I have experience in [FIELD]. My qualifications (or skills) include [e.g. teamwork, communication skills...].

Description of interests + desired work/career opportunity

I am gathering information about career opportunities in [FIELD].

Return conversation to the employer + bring closure to your pitch

Can you tell me more about [FIELD]. /Nice to meet you in person. May I send you my resume to you as follow-up?

I would be interested in [INTERNSHIP?]

A Career in IT

The Twitter pitch

Twitter version of presentation

- English word 4.5 characters
- 140 character tweet = 25 words

30-second memorable speech = 75 words

[POSITION/ EXPERIENCE]. Recent grad. [SKILLS].
[UNIQUE LINE ABOUT WHAT MAKES YOU
STANDOUT]. Please RT.

A Career in IT

The Pixar pitch

A standard plot structure for stories fall into the following format:

Once upon a time [INTRODUCE CHARACTER AND CONTEXT]

Every day, [ESTABLISH THE WAY THINGS WERE].

One day [INTRODUCE PROBLEM/INCITING INCIDENT].

Because of that [CHALLENGE].

Because of that [SEARCH FOR SOLUTION]

Until finally [FINDS SOLUTION]

Now, [ESTABLISH THE WAY THINGS ARE BETTER NOW]

A Career in IT