Main presentation

- And now, if you have any questions, I'll be very happy to try to answer them.

Dealing with questions

- You've raised an important point there. Could I ask you what your own view is?
- Jane, this is your area. Would you like to make a comment?

Introduction

The introduction is a very important - perhaps the most important - part of your presentation. This is the first impression that your audience have of you. You should concentrate on getting your introduction right. You should use the introduction to:

1. Welcome your audience
2. Introduce your subject
3. Outline the structure of your presentation
4. Give instructions about questions

The following table shows examples of language for each of these functions. You may need to modify the language as appropriate.

Function	Possible language
1 Welcoming your audience	• Good morning, ladies and gentlemen • Good morning, gentlemen

	• Good afternoon, ladies and gentleman • Good afternoon, everybody
2 Introducing your subject	• Today I am going to talk about... • The purpose of my presentation is to introduce our new range of...
3 Outlining your structure	• To start with I'll describe the progress made this year. Then I'll mention some of the problems we've encountered and how we overcame them. After that I'll consider the possibilities for further growth next year. Finally, I'll summarize my presentation (before concluding with some recommendations).
4 Giving instructions about questions	• Do feel free to interrupt me if you have any questions. • I'll try to answer all of your questions after the presentation. • I plan to keep some time for questions after the presentation.

Body

The body should be well structured, divided up logically, with plenty of carefully spaced visuals.

Remember these key points while delivering the body of your presentation:

Function	Language
Introducing the subject	• I'd like to start by... • Let's begin by... • First of all, I'll... • Starting with... • I'll begin by...
Finishing one subject...	• Well, I've told you about... • That's all I have to say about... • We've looked at... • So much for...
...and starting another	• Now we'll move on to... • Let me turn now to... • Next... • Turning to... • I'd like now to discuss... • Let's look now at...
Analysing a point and giving recommendations	• Where does that lead us? • Let's consider this in more detail... • What does this mean for ABC?

	Translated into real terms...
Giving an example	- For example,... - A good example of this is... - As an illustration,... - To give you an example,... - To illustrate this point...
Dealing with questions	- We'll be examining this point in more detail later on... - I'd like to deal with this question later, if I may... - I'll come back to this question later in my talk... - Perhaps you'd like to raise this point at the end... - I won't comment on this now...
Summarising and concluding	- In conclusion,... - Right, let's sum up, shall we? - I'd like now to recap... - Let's summarise briefly what we've looked at... - Finally, let me remind you of some of the issues we've covered... - If I can just sum up the main points...
Ordering	- Firstly...secondly...thirdly...lastly... - First of all...then...next...after that...finally... - To start with...later...to finish up...

Conclusion

Use the conclusion to:

1. Sum up
2. (Give recommendations if appropriate)
3. Thank your audience
4. Invite questions

The following table shows examples of language for each of these functions. You may need to modify the language as appropriate.

Function	Possible language
1 Summing up	- To conclude,... - In conclusion,... - Now, to sum up... - So let me summarise/recap what I've said. - Finally, may I remind you of some of the main points we've considered.
2 Giving recommendations	In conclusion, my recommendations are...

	• I therefore suggest/propose/recommend the following strategy.
3 Thanking your audience	• Many thanks for your attention. • May I thank you all for being such an attentive audience.
4 Inviting questions	• Now I'll try to answer any questions you may have. • Can I answer any questions? • Are there any questions? • Do you have any questions? • Are there any final questions?
