

Oral presentation Guidelines

Watch the video of two students doing an oral presentation as part of a speaking exam. Then read the tips below.

Do:

- Use the planning time to prepare what you're going to say.
- If you are allowed to have a note card, write short notes in point form.
- Use more formal language.
- Use short, simple sentences to express your ideas clearly.
- Pause from time to time and don't speak too quickly. This allows the listener to understand your ideas. Include a short pause after each idea.
- Speak clearly and at the right volume.
- Have your notes ready in case you forget anything.
- Practise your presentation. If possible record yourself and listen to your presentation. If you can't record yourself, ask a friend to listen to you. Does your friend understand you?
- Make your opinions very clear. Use expressions to give your opinion.
- Look at the people who are listening to you.

Don't:

- Write out the whole presentation and learn every word by heart.
- Write out the whole presentation and read it aloud.
- Use very informal language.
- Only look at your note card. It's important to look up at your listeners when you are speaking.

Useful language for presentations

Explain what your presentation is about at the beginning:

I'm going to talk about ...

I'd like to talk about ...

The main focus of this presentation is ...

Use these expressions to order your ideas:

First of all, ...

Firstly, ...

Then, ...

Secondly, ...

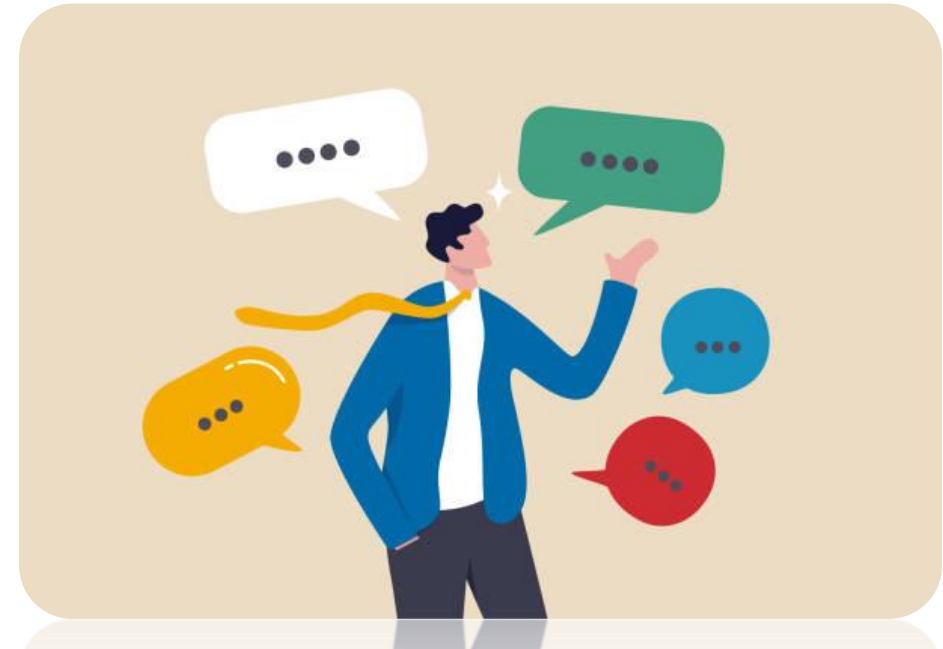

Next, ...

Finally, ...

Lastly, ...

To sum up, ...

In conclusion, ...

Use these expressions to add more ideas from the same point of view:

In addition, ...

What's more, ...

Also, ...

Added to this, ...

To introduce the opposite point of view you can use these words and expressions:

However, ...

On the other hand, ...

Then again, ...

Check your language: ordering - parts of a presentation

Oral presentation

Here are some expressions from a presentation about tourism. Put the expressions in the order you would say them.

Finally, we'll think about how tourism will change in the future.

I'm going to talk about tourism in our country.

To sum up, there are many advantages now to tourism in our country, but the future is uncertain.

Next, I think it's important to consider the disadvantages.

First of all, I'd like to talk about the situation today.

I'm going to talk about tourism in our country.

First of all, I'd like to talk about the situation today.

Next, I think it's important to consider the disadvantages.

Finally, we'll think about how tourism will change in the future.

To sum up, there are many advantages now to tourism in our country, but the future is uncertain.

Check your understanding: grouping - useful phrases

Oral presentation

Put the phrases in the correct groups.

12 items remaining

introducing your presentation

I'm going to talk about ...

I'd like to talk about ...

The topic of my presentation is ...

ordering your presentation

First of all, ...

Secondly, ...

In conclusion, ...

adding more ideas

In addition, ...

What's more, ...

Also, ...

adding ideas from a different point of view

However, ...

On the other hand, ...

Then again, ...

Oral presentation planning structure

